

Fossil Rim Wildlife Center's Upcoming Events for Homeschoolers

For more information on these events or for planning a special event for YOUR homeschool group, please email us at homeschool@fossilrim.org, or call the Homeschool Education Specialist at 254/897-2960 ext. 216

September

- 9-10-07 Oil Spill Class + Tour
10:00-2:30ish Details to be announced.
- 9-24-07 Fossil Dig Class + Tour
10:00-2:30ish. In the morning, take a bus down to our Fossil Pit and dig for marine fossils! Share a picnic lunch at the Overlook, then take a guided tour of Fossil Rim's current, non-marine residents!!!

October

- 10-8-07 Robin Hood Day Camp!!! 9:00-4:30ish. Based on Howard Pyle's classic, The Merry Adventures of Robin Hood, this program combines elements of several shorter programs. Topics include European Red Deer, Horns or Antlers?, archery, poaching, How to Catch a Rhino or Other Wild Creature, camouflage, and a tour of Fossil Rim.
- 10-29-07 Nature Journaling Event
10:00-4:30. This event will combine a nature journaling class, an art class, a picnic lunch, and a tour of Fossil Rim. In the morning, we will learn 4 different nature journaling techniques. After a picnic lunch, we will have a basic art class, followed by driving to specific sites within Fossil Rim to practice our Nature Journaling skills!

November

- 11-5-07 African Safari Day Camp (details to be announced)
- 11-?-07 TBA

December

12-3-07 Horns or Antlers? Class + Tour.
10:00-2:30ish. Horns or antlers? What's the difference? Discover this and other fascinating Fossil Rim facts at our Discovery Table presentation in our morning class. Share a picnic lunch at the Overlook, then take a guided tour of Fossil Rim.

12-?-07 TBA

For Up-to-the-Minute information on upcoming events, reports on past events, educational articles, and student activities, sign up for our monthly Homeschool Enrichment E-zine by emailing us at homeschool@fossilrim.org.